

1. Would it be in the best interest of the public to have stricter regulations on water bottle manufactures?
2. Is bottled water dangerous to the environment?
3. Should the investment of research for a safer plastic bottle material be a responsibility of the government?
4. "The creation of the bottled water for profit should be banned on the global level." How far do you agree with this statement?
5. To what extent are droughts the result of water pumping?
6. To what extent should groundwater be controlled by the government?
7. Should governments be responsible for the cleanup of the world's ocean?
8. Has the global water crisis changed society?
9. Could water become the new oil?
10. Is political instability a result of commodifying basic human rights?
11. Should governments create laws to test water bottles for harmful substances?
12. Should multinational companies be able to control water sources to make profit?
13. Would charging companies to extract water from public sources solve problems that they are currently creating?
14. Are the chemicals found in water bottles debilitating to human health?
15. Should bottled water companies be able to take away water from local communities without consent?
16. Should the right to clean water be established by law?